26	Chianti Classico Riserva D.O.C.G. Castello d'Albola, (13.% Vol.) TOSCANA This Chianti Classico Riserva is produced exclusively from selected grapes grown in the Zonin estate Castello d'Albola, in the heart of the Chianti Classico area in Radda in Chianti. The wine has spicy hints of cinnamon and cloves, alongside oaky and piquant peppery aromas. A rounded, creamy, sweet and well-balanced palate with an aftertaste of incense, balsamic and more spice.	2006/07	37.00
27	Bolgheri Rosso D.O.C. Podere Guado al Melo, (13% Vol.) TOSCANA This is one of the most exciting estates that have emerged from Bolgheri in recent years. Podere Guado al Melo is located on the Tuscan coast, in the heart of the Bolgheri denomination. The wine a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc is an intimate expression of Bolgheri with its harmony and elegance. Complex and velvety smooth, it has good capacity of ageing.	2007/08	38.00
28	Valpolicella D.O.C. Ripasso Superiore Antichi Poderi del Conte Luigi Fratta Pasini, (13.5% Vol.) VENETO Valpolicella is one of the great wines of the tradition from Verona. It is produced from Corvina, Rondinella and Molinara grapes. This superior Valpolicella "ripasso" is made by leaving the wine at the end of the fermentation in contact with Amarone pomaces. This procedure called "Ripasso" leaves the wine with a strong full body, delicate flavours and a very smooth taste.	2007/08	38.00
29	Amarone della Valpolicella Classico D.O.C. Antichi Poderi del Conte Luigi Fratta Pasini, (15% Vol.) VENETO A superb Amarone made from the concentrated juices of grapes allowed to dry over winter, prior to making the wine. The resultant wine is very rich and concentrated balanced with a hint of oak after three years in cask.	2007/08	50.00
30	Brunello di Montalcino D.O.C.G. Col d' Orcia, (13.5% Vol.) TOSCANA Col d'Orcia is one of Montalcino's most dynamic wineries; thanks to oenologist Pablo Harri, the wines are in the modern vein. This Brunello is a complex and "warm" wine, with high alcohol, from only Sangiovese grapes. Aged for over three years in oak cask and a further six months in bottle before sale.	2005/06	50.00
31	Barolo D.O.C.G. Franco Conterno (13.5% Vol.) PIEMONTE The Conterno family, have been producing wines of uncommon elegance and prestige for several generations. The estate of around 25 acres of vineyards is located in the heart of Langhe hills. The unlimited attention dedicated to the wines comes to fruition as they ferment in the winery at low temperature with constant rackings, and then age in oak casks in the silence and darkness of the cellar. These are the secrets that make it possible for lovers of great fine Piedmontese wines to taste product of absolute quality. This Barolo is a classic wine of great structure and elegance, with clean woody overtones. It is the perfect accompaniment for big meat dishes.	2005/06	55.00

La Riserva Speciale della Nostra Cantina

The Special "Riserva" from our Cellar

	Vintage	Bottle
Banditella Rosso di Montalcino D.O.C.	2005/08	40.00
Col di Orcia, (14% Vol.) TOSCANA
It is a new vineyard where clones of Sangiovese that have been selected over the past ten years provide the basis for one of the most excellent expressions of Brunello. A wine that combines the great structure and longevity of the Brunello with the freshness and readiness of Rosso di Montalcino. Rich, massive, with intense, inviting fruit, elegantly supported by the noble tannin and by the spices deriving from oak creating a harmonic impact.
Sassoalloro v.d.t.	2003/05	45.00
Biondi Santi, (12.5% Vol.) TOSCANA
Sassoalloro is a delicious, vividly modern, fruit-driven, violet perfumed wine made from Brunello aged in a combination of barrique and botte; warm and persistent with balanced nose and palate and an exceptional full bodied texture.
Bramasole, Cortona D.O.C.	2000/04	45.00
La Braccessa, Famiglia Antinori (13.5% Vol.) TOSCANA
La Braccessa estate, situated at the foot of the hills around Cortona, has demonstrated to be a best-suited area for the production of syrah. Bramasole, made with 100% syrah grapes, is very deep in colour with fruity, intense aromas and hints of vanilla. On the palate, rich and soft with structure and a full, lingering finish.
Brunello di Montalcino D.O.C.G.	2004/05	50.00
Azienda Agricola Marchesato degli Aleramici, (14% Vol.) TOSCANA
Made from Sangiovese grapes, it is aged for 36 months in oak barrels "barrique". This Brunello is of an intense ruby colour, dry and warm, slightly tannic, elegant and aromatic. It was the wine selected by Mr. Luciano Pavarotti for his wedding banquet.
Barbaresco D.O.C.G. "Vanotu"	1999/01	60.00
Pellissero, (13.5% Vol.) PIEMONTE
Barbaresco is one of Italy's great wines from the north western Piemonte region. This in particular is entirely produced from a single vineyard located at about 350 mt of altitude with a composition of the soil, predominantly calcareous. The wine ages in barrique for eighteen months and in bottles for nine months. The result is a complex wine, ruby red in colour, with fruity notes of raspberries and cherries, harmoniously combined with soft wooden sensations like that of vanilla.

Barolo D.O.C.G.

2005/06 60.00

Prunotto (14% Vol.) PIEMONTE

Barolo is undoubtedly the most prestigious Italian wine, and milestone in the Piedmontese and Langhe tradition. Alfredo Prunotto, gave his name and thirty-three years of his life to this renowned winery in Piedmont. Since 1989 it has been owned by the Antinori Family, who have sought to boost the already high standards. The wine is garnet in colour, wide and complex on the nose with hints of violet and forest fruit aromas. It is full and velvety and well balanced on the palate.

Guado al Tasso

2005/06 75.00

Famiglia Antinori, (13.5% Vol.) TOSCANA

Guado al Tasso, meaning literally "Badger's Ford", takes its name from a common sight at the estate of Tenuta Guado al Tasso, Bolgheri, where it is produced. Made with 70% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Merlot and 15% Syrah, the wine has an extraordinary ruby red colour. It is fruity, more of cherry than cassis, with hints of toast, coffee and dark chocolate. The structure is complex, well balanced, with soft tannins and a lingering finish.

Tignanello

2006/07 85.00

Famiglia Antinori, (13.5% Vol.) TOSCANA

The original Super-Tuscan, Tignanello is produced exclusively from the Tignanello vineyard. It is a blend of 80% Sangiovese, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% cabernet Franc. The wine is intensely fruity and complex on the nose, with hints of wood. The body is full, rich and complex in the mouth with exceptional structure and a lengthy finish.
